The sheets should be of standard size (about 3 12 x 5 14 inches), so that they will snugly fit in the regular box files so commonly used by pharmacists.

We must ensure that the adults using them are well-informed about the precautions needed to protect children from secondary exposure.